JOSIAH'S GOOD REIGN

Comment on Last Sunday's Sunday School Lesson by Mrs. Sallie Lytle Hatton.

There are many agents in the service of God. Often "where tiny footprints touch the ground" the story of His tender mercies is best told.

The violet bursting from the earth in its beautiful form and color, smiling with its teary eye from its lowly home, modestly wafting its gentle greeting on the fragrant air catches the hearts of an army of violet picking girls extending from the lakes to the gulf and from sea to sea. As gifts from friend to friend they carry their message on. The artist takes up the story and tells it on the canvass. The poet takes up the spirit and tells it in his lyrics. The Master tells it on his violin. Thus it is given to all the world, to the rich and poor, to the high and low, the good and bad, to the gay and sad—to all who will receive it.

Men are used in this agency. Some one man must meet the "burning bush" or see the light above the brightness of the sun as the apostle Paul saw on the Damascus road. Some one consecrated heart must give it voice. All great causes like the rivers can be traced to their source. Single bugle blasts have been setting hearts on fire all down the march of ages. Jehovah needs a consecrated heart for a torch. Our lesson today shows that he uses such instrumentalities.

Josiah rescued the kingdom of Judah from heathen idolatry and gave the brightest glory to its history since the days of David. The reign of Josiah beautifully exemplifies the worth of the proverb "Remember now, thy Creator in the days of thy youth."

Our lesson of last Sunday was on Manasseh the bad son of a good father. His was a life of forgetfulness, disobedience, sin and crime until he finds himself and his people captives under a heathen king. Josiah the good king was a son of a bad father and a bad grand-father, but a mother may become God's agent and she may have guided his life and spirit aright. Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign. "He did that which was right in the sight of the Lord." Starting out so successfully at this age we realize that he had learned obedience. The boy is father to the man and eight years later at the age of sixteen we see the obedient child, Josiah transformed to a youth, "seeking God." Four years after this, at the age of twenty we find him transformed to a statesman and patriot. Cleansing his country of idolatry and beating to dust its idols of wood and stone. At the age of twenty-six we find him preparing the house of God for a revival of religion and the worship of Jehova. It is at this time the Law of Moses is found which is the book of Deuteronomy.

How it fills us with encouragement to know of this transforming grace of God leading us on to the perfect day. On the other hand we know that we can go deeper and deeper into sin.

There is a story that the great artist DeVinci when he wanted to paint the "Christ Child" he found a boy with a most beautiful countenance which he used as a model from which he painted the inspiring picture. Years afterwards he wanted to paint "The Last Supper" and wanted the vilest countenance he could find for the model of Judas the traitor. He found one which answered the purpose and it was the same man from which he had painted the "Christ Child." Drink and sin had left their stamp on the countenance which his Creator had given him.

"Ye are the temples of the living God." Like Josiah we need to learn of God and to seek him. Our lives like those people of Jerusalem are surrounded by vanities. We should overthrow the idols and make room for the bible and God's grace. Let us seek to purify the altars of our hearts, revive the spirit and plant the seed of immortal life.

Royal Arch Masons Have Good Time

Last Thursday night Barbourville Chapter held a special meeting, at which three were exalted to the degrees. There were several present, and there never was better work done nor a better time had; every one present had the time of his life. W. J. Cole, Bert Churchill and Dr. C. M. Kelton, were the victims and believe me, they will remember that memorable night so long as they live. There will be another meeting on Saturday, August the 25th, at which time there will be some five or six that will wend their way to that shrine that makes men live closer to his neighbor and brother as well as his God. All Royal Arch Masons are welcome and urged to attend these meetings, especially the visitors that are within our gates.

BIG OIL COMPANY

Kentuckians and New Yorkers Unite In Organization of the Majestic Oil Company

$2,000,000.00 CORPORATION

The Majestic Oil Company, a $2,000,000 concern, of which M. H. Thatcher, former Governor of the Panama Canal Zone is the head, is beginning a big drilling campaign in the old Wayne-McCreary County Oil Fields.

Governor Thatcher is one of the most active oil men in the state. He and his associates have been fortunate, after careful negotiations running through many months, in getting a large acreage in the heart of the well developed and well defined oil field which has been producing and marketing oil for nearly twenty years. More than 5,000,000 barrels of oil have been produced in this field.

These gentlemen were offered property in newer and less developed fields in Kentucky and elsewhere at very much less money. But they chose the safer course and acquired property at much greater expense in a field which is not such a speculation.

Among other prominent men who are associated with Governor Thatcher are Robert W. Cole, Cashier of the First National Bank, Barbourville; Dr. E. S. Moss, President of the First National Bank, Williamsburg; W. Godfrey Hunter, former member of Congress from this district, who for twenty years has been a leading factor in the industrial upbuilding of Southeastern Kentucky not only in the coal and oil fields but in the public utilities of our section.

These gentlemen have made arrangements for further financing the Majestic Oil Company through Messrs. J. E. Mason & Co., 30 Broad street, New York, a well known financial house. The company expect to spend more than $100,000 within the next few months drilling their McCreary county property. This will mean much to our section of the state.

This company has gone to great expense to employ the best engineering and geological experts to assist in making the locations of wells to be drilled.

The fourth well was drilled into the Corder sand at about 450 feet and the well filled up with about 100 feet of oil in a few minutes. Experienced oil men think this well good for more than 100 barrels. The well will be drilled deeper to also get oil in the two lower sands so that one pumping unit may pump oil from three sands with the same effort.

Every effort is being made that that money and experience will permit to enable the Majestic Oil Company to produce and market oil at the least expense. The pipe line is already taking oil from the three completed wells.

Another Row.

Last Monday evening about 7 o'clock, one colored gentleman who resides on Fighting Creek, near the Fair Grounds, came into town and started a rough house in the Arcade in front of the Advocate office, with another of his color named James Clark, and took a shot at the said Clark; Clark returned the salute and went him one better with the result that after the smoke had cleared up that the said Cole, had a gunshot wound in his left leg, just missing the artery, and one Chester Love, who was in the melee was also the happy possessor of a like souvenir in exactly the same place that Cole got his. It is said that these fellows were imbibing freely of the essence of corn, but that Jim Clark, the man who did the marking, was duly sober.

The parties present and who know most about it, say, that George Cole had mistreated Clark's wife, and that Clark asked him about it, and they had some words, Clark went his way and was coming to the Hotel where he works, when Cole and Love were in waiting and as Clark appeared upon the scene, Cole took two shots at him, Clark returned the fire with the results stated above. Clark shot three times, one going astray. As long as "hell-buck" is made and distributed, that long will we have just such altercations. Cole was arrested by Policeman G. M. Golden, and after Dr. Logan had made some minor repairs, took him over and placed him in the tender and loving care (?) of Frank J. Mitchell the jailer, to await the action of the grand jury which will meet the first Monday in next month.

Twin Baby Dies.

The family of Mr. F. R. Barner, was grieved to learn that one of the twin boys of their daughter Mrs. R. L. Caudill died last week in Colorado City, Colo., where they had gone to spend the hot summer months from their home in Hobart, Oklahoma. The little fellow was sick at their home, and through the family physicians advice they went to Colorado they were accompanied there by Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bowersock, where they are staying at present.

MASS MEETING.

The mass meeting which was announced for Tuesday evening was postponed until next Tuesday evening at half past seven o'clock on account of Mr. Farmer's sudden death. It was thought a number of the friends and relatives would probably not be present who are interested in the work the citizens of Barbourville wish accomplished at the cemetery. So every member of the board of directors of the cemetery, and every citizen of the town who have loved ones buried at the cemetery, are earnestly urged to be present at this meeting. Remember the date and time, next Tuesday at 7:30 P. M.

I Thank You.

To the people of Knox County:— I shall always feel grateful to my many friends in Knox county who stood so loyally by me at the recent primary election, and I desire to thank all who gave me their support, for their confidence and friendship. Altho we were matched against great odds and handicapped by the circulation of numerous falsehoods, my friends nevertheless helped me to make a splendid fight. And to those who opposed me and voted for some other candidate I have not the slightest ill will. I propose to support every Republican candidate nominated at the August primary including the nominee James S. Golden, for County Attorney. I am that kind of a Republican. I was defeated because the other fellow got more votes than I did, but I want to say that I appreciate my friends just the same. I shall always remember and love the folks of Knox county for the many kindnesses shown me in the past and especially during the progress of the campaign just closed. I am,

Yours truly,
Sol T. Steele.

"Heap Big Fun"

Tchoupitoulas Tribe No. 111, Imp. O. R. M. meets on the first and third Wednesdays of each month. They are the jolly bunch; they will take your scalp and wampum, lead you through the unknown and unbroken forest of life, they will bring you to their own teepee and give you of their corn and venison, pour oil into the wounds, if any you have, stay by you when sickness or death overtakes you or any member of your family, they will wipe the tear from the eye of you widow, educate and clothe your orphans, they will defend your fair name and stay by you when in adversity. Come and see them, they are a good bunch of scouts.

T. S. Fuller, Sachem.

Card of Thanks.

Barbourville, Ky.,
Aug. 11th, 1917.

To My Friends:

I wish to express to each of you my sincere thanks for your loyal support in the recent primary. I consider it a very great honor to have had the support of 1,299 men and women for the responsible office of superintendent of schools, and hope that I may have an opportunity to personally express my appreciation. It is not necessary to assure you that I will cooperate in every way for the continued progress of our schools.

Yours very truly,
Sarah J. Hughes.

BARBOURVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

The City High School Will Begin Monday, September
3rd, 1917.

The following compose the faculty for the coming year.

Hugh M. Oldfield, B. S., Supt., Math. and Science; Bertha V. King, B. A., Latin and English; Wm. C. Faulkner, History and 8th Grade; Mary Ligon, 6th A 7th Grade; Elizabeth Whaley, 5th and 6th B Grade; Ota V. Barton, 3rd and 4th Grade; Zella Pelly, 2nd Grade; Catherine McSpadden, 1st Grade; Lallah R. Johnson, Kindergarten; Lou Faulkner, Piano; Dorothea Brown, Expression; Nancye Faulkner, Art.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Dr. W. C. Black, President; Mr. W. S. Jarvis, Sec'y. and Treas.; Dr. A. L. Parker, Trustee; Mr. F. W. Scent, Trustee; Mr. Ernest Cannon, Trustee.

Prof. Oldfield will begin his fourth year as Supt. of our City High School and is planning to make this a more successful year even than the other years of his administration, since he has spent the summer making special study of School Supervision and Administration at Ohio State University and has many new ideas and plans which are certain to prove beneficial.

Miss King is a college graduate and has had several years of successful High School teaching, having specialized in Latin and English. The fact that she has taught in the same High School for three years should be proof of her fine qualifications.

Prof. Faulkner needs no introduction, as he has a record that can hardly be equaled by anyone; he has taught in our school for 16 years and we hope he will be there for next 16 years. He will teach High School History and 8th grade.

Miss Ligon, who taught at Union last year, is also well-known and needs no words as to her qualifications. She will have the 7th grade and the A division of the 6th grade. We are indeed fortunate in securing her services.

Miss Whaley, who is to have the B division of the 6th grade and the 5th grade has an enviable record at Pineville having taught there for several years and makes a valuable addition to our faculty.

Miss Barton will be with us again and will teach the 3rd and 4th grades. She has been taking

CONTEST FILED.

There has been quite a little whispered talk on the corners and in secluded spots, in dark shady places about the public square and even behind closed doors with the blinds pulled down of the contests that are to be filed. The fellows who were before the people of the county asking for the nomination for the various county offices, have waited too long now to bring any action. None has been filed and of course there will be none. In the race for the nomination for Judge of the circuit court, there is time yet; but there will not be any filed. We have not as yet talked the matter over with Judge Lay, but we know him, he would have to know that he had been grossly mistreated before he would offer to bring suit, he is a fair minded man, a man that is considerate, in fact he is that kind of a man who wants to know that he is right before he moves. We do not believe that any suit will be filed by him. We believe that four years hence that Mr. Lay, will be the choice of the people. He ran a fine race this time, and from all accounts a clean race, one that was fought without the use of whiskey and money, ran upon his own merits and not the demerits of another, he did not get down to use of "mud-slinging," and it is on this account that we say he will be an easy winner four years hence.

Mr. Lay, we believe, is too good a man to bring an action that would bring disruption among a united party, one that not long since was torn asunder, and on which account there is today another man than the one that would have been at the head of this nation, had it not been for this mistake.

Let's not have another thing like the one in 1912. We want to win the next state race, we want a Republican Governor of Kentucky, and the only way to have that is, a united party, it might start in a contest in this Judicial district, and in the defeat of the whole Republican ticket two years hence. Let's not have any contests, let us submit to the returns even if they do look a little tainted, and have a peculiar smell, it will all come around right some day.

Mr. Rose won by less than thirty votes, well that is just as good as thirty thousand if the returns are correct, and let's not for the sake of party union, question the returns.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

Petroleum is a ruler whose realm girdles the globe. It energizes nearly all of the industries of human development; and altho this deposite "came into it's own" a few years ago, it's grasping tentacles reach out and cover new zones of conquest with every passing day. Until one stops to think, it is unbelievable the relentless hold it has gripped upon every phase of activity.

How limply dependent the human race would be without its bolstering support once it has learned to lean upon its powerful shoulders. The energy that drives a million motor cars, the life that throbs in countless pumping and lighting plants, the steaming locomotives and water crafts, eloquently expresses a fraction of the weight borne by these mighty shoulders. The ancient Hebrew considered oil so important a necessary of life that it was included among the first fruit offering; thithes of oil were exacted also. This is supposed to have been principally of olive oil. The olives were bruised in a mortar or box, crushed in a crude mill, or trodden out with the feet. This beaten oil, besides numerous uses, was burned for lights.

Among the old time inhabitants of tropical lands the coconut oil met the needs of the lamp, one half of the hull formed the vessel for containing the oil and outside parts furnished the wicks, this primitive lamp is still used by the Polynesians.

Torches of large pine-knots were used by the native tribes for lighting purposes, and some of the older ones who live in this country can well remember when they were used here in Knox county. Torches, which were extensively burned in Europe, were followed by candles, which is oil in solid form. The sacred "oil fires" in Russia, were known centuries ago.

Six hundred years before the discovery of America, oil was lamp fuel in Southern Europe. If nature's vast forest should be depleted if her coal was all dug out, her stupendous fountain of petroleum if properly developed, would supply the whole world with fuel and heat without a jar or any kind of inconvenience. She has poured out with an extravagant hand this the most valuable product over almost every country.

In southern India and nearby Islands are the largest fields in the world, Canada's oil production has so far been small. In the United States the greatest producing oil fields at present are in western Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, West Virginia, Texas, California, Colorado and Kentucky. The enormous outpouring annually runs into hundreds of millions of dollars, equaling one half of the world's output.

Petroleum is a natural rock oil, composed of hydrocarbons and this county is full of it. In the Richland country it is safe to say that the deposits of hydrogen and carbon is immense and that the deposits will finally be developed; every indication points to the discovery of the first and greatest oil field in the whole country.

The numerous natural oil springs indicate that the earth is full of oil, and this same indication brought about the first real oil production. Col. E. L. Drake was the first man to undertake to sink a well in this country, in Oil Creek in the state of Pennsylvania, in the year of 1859; handicapped as he was by primitive tools of his own make, and with unskilled assistance, the task was a hard undertaking and one which called into play the fine perserverence and the resourcefulness of the man to accomplish it, oil was struck, and the first thrill of the pulse beat of the twentieth century.

The people made a mad rush to the quite little valley which soon presented an army of frantic frenzied fortune seekers from all over the United States. The whole adjacent country was rent and riddled and pierced by their wild ambition, it was the wildest scramble for wealth ever recorded. This was the first act in the oil drama, and the play is still on.

The activities here are now just beginning, there are good companies now at work here, men who mean something when they are right on the ground. The Central Oil Co. of Kentucky, who has such men as Mr. Schafner, Dr. Stringfield, and others are really doing something, they are not only drilling on the Anderson lease, they are pumping and producing oil. The Benham and Trees Company, will go on down until they succeed in finding the precious fluid. The Company with which Frank Demetris, is connected have a real well on the Lee Gray farm, it is a producer. The Company which Mr. Hunter represents have a well on the Messamore lands that is now running over, we know this to be a fact: they have plugged it up, but this does not stop the flow as it is now running out around the crevices in the wooden plug that they drove into the casing, it is right there to be seen. On Indian Creek, the well that was drilled by the Eldorado Co. is a real well with a capacity of no less than sixty barrels a day. On the Messamore farm the well, it is stated, will produce more than seventy five barrels a day. Stewart and Donald have a well on the Evans farm that there is not the least doubt but that it will produce 65 barrels a day.

The mad rush and scramble into the fields in Pennsylvania, when oil was first discovered there, will soon be repeated in this county. We are sure it is here, we have positive evidence, and there is no doubt but that in the very near future we will have a boom the like of which has seldom been seen in any field in the whole world.

Liver Trouble.

"I am bothered with liver trouble about twice a year," writes Joe Dingman, Webster City, Iowa "I have pains in my side and back and an awful soreness in my stomach. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and tried them. By the time I had used half a bottle of them I was feeling fine and had no signs of pain." Obtainable everywhere.

A PAUL PRY P. O.

Two Massachusetts Congressmen, one a Democrat and the other a Republican, aver that the Postoffice Department tried to "get something on them" in order to defeat them for re-election, and also allege that their mail had been tampered with while in the custody of the Department. As sincere believers in the soundness and superiority of Republican principles and policies, we are firmly convinced that it would be well for the country if the Democratic Congressman were defeated. It would be better if men who stand for Republican policies were in control of the law-making branch of the government.

But not even for the accomplishment of that good purpose, would we for a moment countenance either tampering with mail or executive interference in elections of Congressmen or Senators. If the time ever comes when any Department or Bureau of the Executive branch of the government can with impunity utilize the time of government employees in campaigns for or against the election of members of the legislative branch, then representative government will be practically at an end. With Federal appropriations at their command, and with the aid of the civil employees, and with control of the machinery of the government, the officers of the administration have a power which cannot be measured or defined.

Whether the administration be of one party or the other, the people of the country must not, even passively, countenance any official interference with that supreme act of sovereignty performed by American citizens at the ballot box. There are two departments of the administration where interference is most easily undertaken and where the temptation is greatest—the Post Office Department and the Department of Justice. It is easy for either of these departments, under pretense of guarding against violation of law, to exercise a vicious and dangerous sort of espionage.

In the present case it is not the Massachusetts Congressmen, nor in any other case will it be the individual, who is chiefly interested. Elections belong to the people—not to the candidates. The people are chiefly interested in seeing that there shall be a fair campaign, a free ballot and an honest count. There should be not only a full investigation of the charges of Departmental espionage but there should be constant vigilance to prevent or punish any such acts committed in the future.

Marshal's Sale For Taxes

I, or one of my deputies will, on Monday, September 3, 1917, it being the first day of the Knox Circuit Court, offer for sale the following described real estate, or a sufficient part thereof, to satisfy the city taxes of T. J. Wyatt, which is described and bounded as follows:

A certain house and lot, lying and being in the State of Kentucky, County of Knox, and City of Barbourville, and bounded on the North by the lands of Dan C. Bingham, on the East by the lands of Dan C. Bingham, on the South by the lands of E. E. Sawyer and on the West by Main Street; levied on as the property of the said T. J. Wyatt for his city revenue and city levy for the year of 1916, $3.97, and for the year of 1917, $3.75 and the costs of this sale. Terms of sale are cash in hand. Sale will be made about the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the east door of the Court House and at public outcry.

Given under my hand, as Chief of Police of the city of Barbourville, this August 6th, 1917.

Mr. Bradle Farmer and his brother, Walter, who reside in West Va., came here Wednesday to attend the funeral of their brother, L. W. Farmer.

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Edw. Faulkner gave an informal reception in honor of her charming guest, Mrs. Charles Swearingner of Louisville.

News items are as scarce as hens teeth this week. Everybody is busy, and it seems that none have come or gone during the week.

When wanting a Monument or Tombstone, call on, or write C. P. Prichard, Cane Ky., who represents the Coggins Marble Co., of Canton Ga. All work guaranteed. 8-17-10-5.

The Rock Oil Company, with Mr. John H. Wolf as manager, is rearing up on the Costello farm on Smoky Creek. It is a foregone conclusion that they will get the real stuff there.

If you need a good typewriter see D. C. Payne, next door to the Hotel Jones, he has a good one, it is cheap at the price asked. He will also repair your watch or any other jewelry that may need it.

Mr. N. C. Hunter, returned this morning from Pittsburgh, Pa. where went in the interest of his Company. They made a rich strike on the Messmore farm last week. They will shoot their No. 1 well on the Fisher farm this week.

Mr. Chas. C. Swearingner with his lovely young wife has returned to his home in Louisville, after a two weeks visit with his mother, Mrs. Catherine Swearingner and his sisters, Mrs. Hugh M. Oldfield and Mrs. Edw. Faulkner.

Prof. and Mrs. Hugh M. Oldfield have returned from Columbus, Ohio, where they have been spending the summer. Prof. Oldfield has been taking special work at Ohio State University in School Administration and Supervision under three of greatest educators in the United States—Dr. Harlan Updegraff of University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Leonard Koos of University of Washington and Dr. Samuel Brown of Ohio State University.

The Weaver Oil Co., is now making preparation to put down five wells in this county. Mr. R. Edgett, the manager, informs us that the company has set aside $30,000.00 for the development of their 6000 acres in Knox county, which is well scattered over the county, we do not know where the first hole will be put down. Mr. F. C. Scott of Wichita Falls, Texas, is here to Superintend the work, so things will begin to move right at once.

FARMER.

On last Monday, the 13th, at 1:45, p. m., the life of Loretta W. Farmer came to an end, and spirit returned to the God who gave it. Mr. Farmer was one of our best citizens and business men. He came here in the early days of the oil excitement, as a contractor and driller, a single man looking for his fortune, and no doubt a future home. He made good in the oil business, and accumulated quite a deal of money. After the oil excitement had subsided, he went in to the mining business and made quite a success of it.

He married Miss Edna, daughter of ex-Congressman Wilson, of this city, and to them were born three children. They have lived all the time since their marriage in this city.

Mr. Farmer's death came as a shock and surprise to all, he had been complaining for sometime of asthma, but was not considered dangerous until Sunday night the 12th, when he suddenly became worse, and the end came about 1:45 p. m. Monday.

The funeral was held last Wednesday at the residence, Rev. Creel saying the last sad requiem over his remains; he was interred in the city cemetery.

He leaves a wife, one son and two daughters, to mourn that he should have to go; besides these, there are many friends and other relatives that mourn for him that was, but who is not now of earth any more.

Incorporated

Today the Mountain Advocate incorporated and elected officers. They are as follows: W. H. McDonald, President and General Manager; F. D. Sampson, Vice President; E. C. McDonald, Secretary and Treasurer.

Under the new management we will place the Advocate at the same price as before, $1.00 per year. We will proceed at once to collect all accounts due the company under the management as partnership. Pay all accounts and start new. So this is to serve notice on all who may be indebted to us, that we must have settlement at once, or we will be compelled to place the accounts in the hands of an attorney for collection, this is a business proposition and we must hew to the line.

TO THE PUBLIC

The Barbourville Baptist Institute opens September 5th for the annual session of 1917-18. It is our wish to make this the greatest year in the history of the school. This wish doesn't in the least belittle the great work that the school has done in the past, we could not do that if we were so inclined. Every village and hamlet in this and adjacent counties bespeaks the good that this school has accomplished. But a laudable ambition impels us to try to make this the banner year of its history.

If we are to succeed in this work we must have the co-operation of our own home people. This assistance should not come alone from a natural and commendable pride we feel in our home town, but from a deep and abiding love we should have for the boys and girls throughout our territory that are likely to let the opportunity pass unless we reach them.

I am today my brother's keeper, as Cain was in the long ago, applies to every generation of men. It applies to you and to me. Let us acquit ourselves like men and women.

Now is the time God is calling us to the test. The English speaking people are on trial; and that liberty that we love so well is on trial today. Shall we be slackers? or shall we here and now determine that we shall nurse and care for education the very germ and life of civilization and liberty.

Today the schools in the leading countries of Europe are closed. The fact that the Atlantic rolls between us and the enemy is the only reason that our schools are now open. God has wonderfully blessed us in our isolation; let us not fail to use the advantage that He has given us.

I earnestly request every patron of the school to be with us 10:00 a. m. September 5th, 1917 in the school auditorium.

I wish to discuss more vital questions relating to school life with the fathers and mothers of the boys and girls who come to us.

The entire public are cordially invited, nay, urged to be present also. We assure you a hearty welcome.

J. L. BRYAN, President.

special summer training at Eastern Ky., State Normal School, Richmond for these grades.

Miss Pelly also will return. She has secured her life certificate at Western Kentucky State Normal, Bowling Green, this summer. Her splendid work here last year is witness of her qualification and success as a teacher of the second grade.

Miss McSpadden, who is to have first grade comes highly recommended. She has had successful experience in teaching. She not only has a High School and Academic certificate but also a first grade elementary life certificate from Eastern Tenn. State Normal School, Johnson City.

Miss Johnson is to have charge of one of the new departments added this year—the Kindergarten and will take in little children from ages of 3 to 7 years old. She has made extensive study and uses the Montessori method. This is a department long needed in our city and we hope it will be well patronized.

Miss Lou Faulkner having been our successful music teacher for last two years will again teach piano. She has been taking special work this summer at Louisville Conservatory of Music and made the highest grades in her class. We trust she will, as usual, have as many pupils as she can teach.

Miss Brown, who formerly taught at Baptist Institute and who is well known to all on account of the splendid work done by her with her pupils, will teach expression at our school. We want to wage all our patrons to help make this department permanent and strong as this is the first year expression has been introduced into our school.

Miss Nan Faulkner, who has been teaching art for the last three years at Baptist Institute, will have charge of an art class at our school. She has taken special summer work in painting at Cincinnati and we hope she will have many new art pupils in addition to the large number of her old art class.

Too much praise cannot be given for the splendid work done by the Board of Education. They have secured the best teachers that could be had and the personnel of the faculty this year can not be surpassed by any in the State. They have worked unceasingly toward making our City High School the best possible. An addition is being built to our already large new building, as the rooms were so overcrowded last year.

With these four new rooms, our splendid faculty, our fine student body, our enthusiastic Board of Education and with hearty co-operation of our citizens, we predict a most successful year for our City High School.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney trouble and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Barbourville, people.

Mrs. Bertha Steele, Pitzer St., Barbourville, says: "My back was so weak, I could hardly do anything and I felt run down and miserable. My ankles and limbs became swollen and the action of my kidneys was irregular. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from the Costello Drug Co. and they helped me, relieving backaches and other symptoms of kidney trouble."

Mr. J. T. Williams, who is with the 159th U. S. Regiment stationed at Louisville, was with home-folks Sunday and Monday. Josh says he likes Uncle Sam's fare reasonably well.

LaBELLE LODGE

Elects Officers—Meetings to Be Held on First and Third Fridays of Each Month

Last Friday night LaBelle Lodge No. 59, I. O. O. F., held their regular meeting and proceeded to elect officers pay off their old stale bills, and do some other stunts.

The election was as follows:— Noble Grand, Read P. Black; Vice Grand W. G. Gray; Treasurer, E. E. Evans; Warden, W. R. Gibson. The installation of officers will take place tonight and it is hoped that there will be a general old time reunion of the old time boys and that the days of long ago will be remembered when we did not have enough chairs to go around. The officers of the lodge hope to see all the old member come out tonight, come be with us, you will enjoy it, and besides you will be doing something for yourself and family.

The meetings in the future will be held on the first and third Fridays in each month, don't forget the date, be one of us again.

Modern Philosophy

GOSSIPERS.

Some people like to talk and blow and tell most everything they know. They like to run their neighbors down and spread the gossip over town, no matter if it's false or true, but then of course we don't mean you. They say, "my neighbor, cross the street has got a nose big as a beet; she lets her home go rather slack so she can put clothes on her back. She spends her time away from home and lets her children gayly roam and run the streets by night and day and live in that neglected way. Of course it matters not to me, but ain't it awful Mag? That Richard Roe is far too mean to give his wife a lima bean. That man would never spend a cent for which some day he might repent. I know his heart is too much like stone to buy his wife an ice cream cone. He never writes her while in camp because he'd have to buy a stamp. Of course it matters not to me, but ain't it awful Mag? Why, if I had a man like that I'd beat him till his nose was flat. I wouldn't let his bossy talk make me stand up and walk the chalk; I'd let him know he's just a prune and is not worth a picayune. Why, that poor woman's soft as hash to let her man deal out the cash. Of course it matters not to me, but ain't it awful Mag? And so they spend their months and years in burning other people's ears and lastly find that all their hate was caused by gasing o'er the gate.

Have you a building job on your hands

Now that prices are high it is more than ever important that you give careful consideration to the roof you are going to put on. You can save real money and get a better roof by using

Certain-teed Roofing

Thru quality and sheer merit as a roofing material CERTAIN-TEED is now being used as the preferable type of roofing for sky-scrapers, factories, hotels, stores, warehouses, garages, farm buildings etc., where durability is necessary.

It is economical to buy, inexpensive to lay and costs practically nothing to maintain. It is weather-tight, light weight, clean, sanitary and fire-retardant. It is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to thickness (1, 2 or 3 ply).

There are many roll roofings on the market, but only one CERTAIN-TEED. It pays to get the best. It costs no more to lay a CERTAIN-TEED roof than it does to lay a poor roof, but there is a vast difference in the wear. You can't tell the quality of a roofing by looks or feel. Your only safety is the label. Be sure that it is CERTAIN-TEED—then you are certain of quality and guaranteed satisfaction.

Certain-teed Slate-Surfaced Asphalt Shingles are supplanting wood and slate shingles for residences. They cost less, are just as good looking, wear better, won't fall off, buckle or split. They are fire-retardant, and do not have to be painted or stained.

Certain-teed Paints and Varnishes The name CERTAIN-TEED on a can of paint or varnish is the same guarantee of quality and satisfaction it is on a roll of roofing or a bundle of shingles. Made for all uses and in all colors.

A CARD OF THANKS.

Williamsburg, Ky.,
Aug. 15th, 1917.

TO THE PEOPLE:—

I hereby take this method of thanking you one and all for giving to me the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge of the 34th. Judicial district.

I shall do my very best to discharge all the duties of the office of Circuit Judge of this great district fairly and impartially, and to merit the confidence which you have reposed in me.

Yours very truly,

NEW KENTUCKY TAX LAWS - - -

There will be many changes in the new tax laws, which go into effect on January 1st, and taxpayers are deeply interested.

Farmers will be benefited by the new State tax rate on Lands and Improvements from 55 to 40 cents on each $100 valuation and on Live Stock from 55 to 10 cents for State purposes. Bonds, Stocks, Mortgages and Accounts will be exempt from local taxation; as will also Agricultural Implements; and Products grown within the year are exempt from all taxation. Money deposited in Bank will be taxed at only 10 cents on the $100, instead of 55 as heretofore. This will result in a large saving to taxpayers, who have been listing their property at a fair valuation.

Merchants will have only State taxes to pay on their Notes and Accounts at the rate of 40 cents on each $100 and 10 cents on Bank Deposits. Other property, such as Real Estate, Merchandise, etc., is subject to State tax rate of only 40 instead of 55 cents.

Manufacturers are exempted from local taxes on their Machinery, Raw Material and Product. Notes and Accounts and will be taxed for State purposes only on such property at 40 cents on the $100 and 10 cents on Bank Deposits. On all other property the State tax is only 40 cents on each $100 and the local taxes as fixed in the localities where their business is conducted.

Bonds, Stocks, Mortgages, Notes and Accounts are taxable for State purposes only at 40 cents on the $100 and exempt from local taxation.

The State tax on Real Estate, Household Goods, Merchandise, Vehicles and other property owned by individuals has been reduced from 55 to 40 cents; a reduction of 37 1/2 per cent.

Additional Revenue to justify the reduction and increase the State revenue is to come from Bonds, Stocks, Notes and Accounts; Mineral and Timber Rights and Royalties and by equalization of notoriously undervalued assessments, and as each class of property, no matter by whom owned, will be assessed and taxed uniformly, the advantage to taxpayers generally and the State at large will be very great.

The State needs more revenue to meet the present deficit, and the idea is to get more property to tax rather than to impose more taxes on property now paying more than its share, and under the new and more equitable laws this can be accomplished.

The State Tax Commission is going about the work in the right way to subject every kind of property to its fair share of taxation and correct the evils heretofore existing whereby many property owners paid more than their just due and others escaped entirely. The Commission is endowed with power to enforce the laws and bring the delinquents to a sense of their responsibility and obligation to the State, and every Taxpayer, Assessor and Supervisor should aid in securing for the State the successful operation of the new laws, which are fair and just to all.

Where accurate returns are made as of September 1st, the property owners will be immune from past omissions and delinquents may be proceeded against for ten years back, so there is every inducement to comply with such just and equitable laws, and as the principles involved are worked out there will be further reductions in the tax rates, and in time the entire exemption of land for State purposes, as in other States where the same laws are in practice.

Just the Thing For Diarrhoea.

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved and within two days I was as well as ever." Many druggists recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.

LOST.

Last Thursday morning somewhere between Artemus and Himyar school house. I will give $5.00 reward to the party returning it. It is made by the Landis Watch Co. 17 jewel gold filled case has a fob with my initial "T. C." Bring the watch to the First National Bank Barbourville Ky., and get your reward.

Cure for Cholera Morbus.

"When our little boy, now seven years old, was a baby he was cured of cholera morbus by Chamberlain's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. Sidney Simmons, Fair Haven, N. Y. "Since then other members of my family have used this valuable medicine for colic and bowel trouble with good satisfaction and I gladly endorse it as a remedy of exceptional merit." Obtainable everywhere.

Commissioner's Sale

By order of the Knox Circuit Court rendered at its April term, 1917, in the case of City of Barbourville, Plaintiff, against C. S. Coyt and Mary Coyt, Defendants, I will, as Master Commissioner, on the 3rd day of September, 1917, same being the first day of the September term of the Knox Circuit Court, sell at the court house door in Barbourville, Ky., to the highest and best bidder, the following described property, real estate, to satisfy the judgment in said case, amounting to $117.45 with interest from October 1st, 1914, and $45.00 probable cost.

One certain lot and premises lying and being in the City of Barbourville, Knox county, Ky., bounded as follows: Beginning on School street, on the north side of the same at the southwest corner of lot now owned by John C. Main; thence west with School street 213 1/2 feet to L. D. Stanfill's lot; thence a northerly direction to Short street; thence east with Short street about 213 1/2 feet to a stone, thence to the beginning.

Said property will be sold on a credit of six months, the purchaser to execute bond with approved security, bearing interest at 6% from date, having the force and effect of a judgment and retaining a lien on said property until the purchase money is paid.

WITNESS my hand, this the 15th day of August, 1917.

J. J. TYE, M. C.

Knox Circuit Court.

Sale about 1 p. m. Purchaser must execute bond as soon as sale is over, or the property will be immediately put up and resold.

Pity The Poor Farmer.

Mr. Z. H. von Engleken criticizes the farmers of America, who stand, he declares, at the foot of the list of subscribers to the Liberty Loan. Mr. von Engleken was once the Director of the Mint. He is now the head of a Federal Land Bank. He represents the administration attitude of mind toward the farmers of the country. They are expected to plant increased acreage of all staple crops, to work harder than they ever have, to pay higher wages to more inefficient labor, to accept lower prices for their products—and to subscribe handsomely to each installment of bonds which the war will produce. The farmers of the land voted freely for Mr. Wilson last November because he "kept us out of war" and because he was under virtual pledge to continue to do so. Being "kept out of war," the farmer had an eager customer in each of the Allies, and he received bumper prices for bumper crops. Now he is menaced by commandeering, threatened with price-fixing, and scolded because he doesn't come across with the coin. Pity the poor farmer—who evidently has not yet learned to apply the remedy which is in his hand, namely the vote.

The Best Laxative.

To keep the bowels regular the best laxative is outdoor exercise. Drink a full glass of water half an hour before breakfast and eat an abundance of fruit and vegetables, also establish a regular habit and be sure that your bowels move once each day. When a medicine is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are pleasant to take and mild and gentle in effect. Obtainable everywhere.

Great $10,000 Saddle Horse Stake For 1917 Kentucky State Fair

Owners and Breeders Throughout the Country Interested In President Cohen's Ambitious Enterprise.

RICHLIEU KING, 1916. HERMAN STRAUS & SONS' CO. CUP. LEVY BROTHERS' CUP.

Two of the array of trophies offered in the great $10,000 five gaited saddle horse stake at the fifteenth annual Kentucky State Fair, the week of Sept. 10, are magnificent silver cups donated by the two leading mercantile establishments of Louisville in their lines, the Levy Brothers' Clothing Company and the H. Straus & Sons' Co. department store.

HON. MAT S. COHEN, commissioner of agriculture and, by virtue of this office, president of the Kentucky State Fair, has secured a $10,000 five gaited saddle horse stake for the 1917 Kentucky State Fair to be held in Louisville the week of Sept. 10-15.

Commissioner Cohen, with the unanimous indorsement and enthusiastic support of the members of the state board of agriculture, was untiring in his efforts to secure the interest and co-operation of horse owners and breeders throughout the country, and his plans were crowned with splendid success. From nearly every city of any size in the United States letters have poured in upon the commissioner eulogizing his brilliant achievement and commending the vitalizing effect of such a project upon the horse interests of the country.

World Will Look to America.

The commissioner has made it known that this very motive inspired him in his efforts for this gigantic prize list, as it is his firm belief that at the close of the present disastrous and exhausting war all foreign nations will look to America for foundation stock and new blood and that this nation should prepare for the demand. At present he declares that the breeding operations of this country have ceased to an alarming extent and that just such inspiration as this hitherto unheard of stake is necessary to arouse the horsemen and breeders of the United States.

Entrance Fee Waived.

In addition to the magnitude of the prize money, the fact that any entrance fee is waived and the horse owner or breeder privileged to enter as many animals as he cares to nominate free of charge and that stable room and bedding are provided by the State Fair without cost to the owner is certain to attract the attention of the entire horse world and to make the five gaited saddle horse events of the 1917 Kentucky State Fair the most sensational saddle horse affair of the age.

The battle royal for the $10,000 in prizes will open Monday night, Sept. 10, with a grand prize total of $2,500 offered the five gaited saddle stallion of any age who bears off the championship honors of America in his sex class.

The prize money donated and set aside in this class is as follows:

How Prize Money is Divided.
One thousand dollars to the horse winning first prize, $825 to the horse winning second prize, $375 to the horse winning third prize and $250 to the horse winning fourth prize. In addition to the first prize of $1,000 the saddle stallion proving champion of the country in his class will receive a sterling silver cup, on which will be engraved "Championship of America for five gaited saddle stallion, any age," and which will be valued at $250.

On Tuesday night of Fair week the mare division of the saddle horse stake will be shown under the same conditions and with the same amounts and divisions as in the stallion rings.

Wednesday night the exhibition of geldings will take place in identically the same manner and with the same divisions.
Saturday night the grand finale of the horse show will take place, when the four champions of America in their particular sex classes meet to compete for $2,500 in prize money and the title of grand champion of America. The money in the grand championship event will be divided the same as in the sex classes, and, in addition, the winner will receive a sterling silver trophy known and inscribed as the "Grand Championship of America for five gaited saddle stallion, mare or gelding of any age."

Judges Carefully Picked.

Entries for these stakes will close Aug. 1, and all nominations should be sent in immediately to Fount T. Kremer, secretary of the Kentucky State Fair, Republic building, Louisville.

Three judges will be selected to preside in these rings, the officials to be named by the State Board of Agriculture of Kentucky, the State Board of Agriculture of Missouri and the State Board of Agriculture of California. This guarantees judges of the highest integrity, ability and nation wide reputation among horsemen and officials eminently well suited to serve in the most spectacular and important horse event the world has ever known.

BIG SHOW FOR WOMEN PLANNED FOR STATE FAIR

One of the Most Creditable Exhibits In the Entire Gigantic Display.

Busy housewives and experts in arts and crafts are taking advantage of every moment in preparation for the showing to be made at the fifteenth annual Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville the week of Sept. 10.

The Woman's department is naturally the most interesting portion of the State Fair to womankind and is likewise one of the most creditable exhibitions in the entire gigantic display.

The entry list for this department will close Aug. 27, and a "hurry up call" is issued by Kentucky State Fair Secretary Fount T. Kremer, Suit 604 Republic building, Louisville.

For catalogue or information address Fount T. Kremer, Secretary Kentucky State Fair, Suit 604 Republic Building, Louisville, Ky.

HOLSTEINS PROMINENT AT KENTUCKY STATE FAIR

Prize Money Doubled For the "Stars of the Show."

Holsteins will be one of the most prominent classes in the beef cattle department of the coming Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville the week of Sept. 10. The prize list for this breed of efficient dairy performers has been doubled and now represents the interesting sum of $800.

All of the classes throughout the beef cattle department have been largely increased, but the Holstein aggregation bids fair to be the "stars of the show." A model dairy in operation is promised as an adjunct to the dairy cattle exhibition, and there will be new features of scientific dairy management marking the cattle exhibit of the fifteenth annual State Fair.
